2020 Vision - The Year of Love

Each day of 2020, I am challenging myself, and anyone else who will join, to love like you've never been hurt. Love unconditionally. Love completely. Love forgivingly. What if when Jesus said to love your neighbor as yourself, He really meant it? Think about your neighbors, your co-workers, your in-laws and even your out-laws..... Do you love them as yourself?

I am going to try to post a verse about love each day and some encouragement that I have gleaned from God's Word by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit.

If I miss a day, it will not be the end of the world, but rather because I'm not available to get to a computer or such.

To enter into 2020, I would like to start with the 2 greatest commandments:

Matt. 22:34 Hearing that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, the Pharisees got together. 35 One of them, an expert in the law, tested him with this question: 36 "Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?"

37 Jesus replied: "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' 38 This is the first and greatest commandment. 39 And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' 40 All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments."

In Reality, Jesus said this: Love God & Love People

Let us hold these two truths in our hearts this year and Love God with all of our heart, soul, and minds and Love others as much as we love ourselves.
